

The New Brunswick Labour History Award

“Recognizing the place of workers in New Brunswick history”

One award per Regional Heritage Fair site

Regional Heritage Fair Committees will coordinate this award.

- May be awarded to an individual who presents his/her individual project or participates in a group and /or classroom project;
- Student may receive the award only once during his/her participation in heritage fairs;
- In the same fair, a student award recipient may also be selected as a delegate to the Provincial Heritage Fair, but may not receive another award/medal.

Criteria for the award:

The following are criteria required for consideration of the project:

- The project must present a topic related to the history of work and/or labour as part of New Brunswick heritage;
- The project may focus on people (individuals or groups), events (local or provincial), organizations (small or large) or places (in New Brunswick) that shed light on the history of workers in the province;
- The project should demonstrate use of relevant sources and present research results in ways that will interest fellow students and to members of the public;
- Students show enthusiasm and resourcefulness in exploring the role of work and labour in New Brunswick history.

The recipient will receive:

- a commemorative plaque;
- a certificate signed by the Director of the New Brunswick Labour History Project;
- a letter of congratulations from the President of the New Brunswick Federation of Labour.

The recipient's school will receive:

- a commemorative trophy (loaned for one-year);
- a gift subscription to Our Times: Canada's Independent Labour Magazine;
- a certificate signed by the Director of the New Brunswick Labour History Project

** Students are encouraged to make use of the New Brunswick Labour History website (www.lhtnb.ca) and the Atlantic Canada Portal (<http://atlanticportal.hil.unb.ca/>), among other available resources, in developing their projects.
