

Changes in education level by age and language

A really striking change has taken place in the education of New Brunswickers, the general level risen extraordinarily. The significant gap between the education level of those of the two linguistic groups, which is enormous among those 65 and older, does not exist with the 25 to 34 year old age group.